Christianity is the dominant religion in South Africa, with almost 80% of the population in 2001 professing to be Christian. No single denomination predominates, with mainstream Protestant churches, Pentecostal churches, African initiated churches, and the Catholic Church all having significant numbers of adherents. Importantly, there is significant and sustained syncretism with African ...

1 Introduction: Peoples, religions, Constitution and Charter. This article is about the South African Constitution,<sup>1</sup> the South African Charter of Religious Rights and Freedoms (South African Charter)<sup>2</sup> and religions in South Africa. Unfortunately, I have to limit myself to the constitutional position of just two of the many religions in the country, as space and time do not allow for more.
